Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Ensuring professional client and vendor interactions; Providing day-of event support and event vendor assistance; Ensuring adherence to event timelines; Submitting volunteer requests to the Volunteer Coordinator; Supervising contracted temp staff and volunteers during events; Updating event forms and documents pertaining to private events and tourism activities; Tracking and stewarding Sales & Event Department inventory; Providing representation at promotional events; Assisting the Private Event & Sales Coordinator in the solicitation of new tour clientele; Conducting site visits for private event and tourism clientele; Entering and tracking client contacts in the events database; Assisting with booking and correspondence with group tour clients; Providing administrative support for the planning of tourism and promotional events; and, Providing administrative and day-of support for all Signature Events.

This position requires the ability to utilize discretion to make decisions in support of the organization's policies, guidelines, objectives, and departmental goals, the skills to instruct volunteers effectively, and the ability to work independently under minimal supervision, within general instructions and in compliance with set policies and procedures, to fulfill the responsibilities described herein. Evening, weekend and holiday work is required as the Sales & Event Assistant is expected to be onsite the day of the event to oversee set-up, troubleshoot problems, supervise volunteers, and provide client and vendor assistance as scheduled.

This position description has been designed to indicate the general nature and level of work performed by jobholders within this role. It is not designed to contain, or to be interpreted as, a comprehensive inventory of all duties, responsibilities, and qualifications required of employees assigned to the job. To perform the job successfully, an employee must perform each essential responsibility satisfactorily. These requirements are representative, but not all-inclusive, of the knowledge, skills, and abilities required. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform these essential functions.

PRIMARY OBJECTIVES:

1. Assist the Sales & Event Department in providing exceptional support to clientele and vendors to encourage positive customer feedback and repeat bookings;
2. Support the Sales & Event Department in all aspects of the execution of private events and ACM external promotional events, and supports logistics for ACM internal events;
3. Uphold ACM's organizational and customer service standards to ensure that events are run with the utmost professionalism and positive outcomes;
4. Assist the Private Event & Sales Coordinator with outreach to potential tour clients, tracking tourism clientele, and follow-up communications with existing clients to promote increased group tour and visitation business for ACM;
5. Provide administrative support, such as updating of Sales & Event Department forms, documents, and the event database to ensure data accuracy and accessibility to staff that are directly and indirectly involved with events.

MAJOR RESPONSIBILITIES:

Under the general direction of the Marketing & Events Manager, the Sales & Event Assistant will be responsible for:

1. Attending day-of events to oversee the facilitation of event client needs, private event timelines, and onsite vendor needs;
2. Assisting with logistics and the execution of Sales & Event Department promotional events, external promotional events, and ACM internal events;
