GENERAL SUMMARY

The Volunteer Coordinator originates, guides, coordinates, and facilitates the development, expansion, and sustainability of the volunteer program within the Lemay – America's Car Museum (ACM) and its affiliates. The Volunteer Coordinator is responsible for driving program initiatives, establishing best practices within the program, and coordinating all volunteer activities in alignment with organizational objectives and goals. Responsibilities include: Advertising; Recruitment; Screening; Selection; Deployment; Training; Performance management; Strategic development; Data and file management; and Support. This position requires strategic planning, discretion to make decisions in support of the organization's objectives and departmental goals, and an ability to work independently to fulfill the responsibilities described here within.

The Volunteer Coordinator supports the mission and vision of the museum by developing, promoting, and maintaining a wide range of volunteer efforts that attract, develop, and maintain a trained and trusted corps of volunteers that supports operational needs and embodies the ACM's standards of service excellence. Additionally this position assists in various employment related activities including posting jobs, processing applicants, completing backgrounds, and assisting with all-staff meetings and appreciation events.

This position description has been designed to indicate the general nature and level of work performed by jobholders within this role. It is not designed to contain, or to be interpreted as, a comprehensive inventory of all duties, responsibilities and qualifications required of employees assigned to the job. To perform the job successfully, an employee must perform each essential responsibility satisfactorily. These requirements are representative, but not all-inclusive, of the knowledge, skills, and abilities required. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform these essential functions.

PRIMARY OBJECTIVES:

1. Maintain and grow a vibrant volunteer program by ensuring volunteer satisfaction, organizational coverage of needs, minimization of liability, and overall sustainability;
