Highlights from the Bonhams & Butterfields Collector Car Sale

On September 11th and 12th, we held the first annual Bonhams & Butterfields Collector Car Sale in the Bicentennial Pavilion at the Hotel Murano in downtown Tacoma. The auction proved to be a success as it brought in $2.25 million with over $1 million of the proceeds going toward the Museum.

Friday began with the auction preview where potential bidders were able to view the collection prior to the auction. A cocktail reception for auction attendees was held that night and the auction shortly followed. The auction continued Saturday and ended early to everyone's surprise as the cars sold quickly.

LeMay select general contractor JTM Construction

In a further step toward fulfilling the mission to create AMERICA'S CAR MUSEUM, the LeMay Museum Board of Directors has appointed JTM Construction as the general contractor to oversee the construction of the new museum complex in downtown Tacoma. David L. Madeira, LeMay's President/CEO said, "We selected JTM Construction for this project because of their deep experience executing class "A" building projects. We are also extremely impressed with their commitment to our vision to create a gathering place in Tacoma where enthusiasts from around the world will come to celebrate America's love affair with the automobile."
