A Toast to 2012: Year in Review for America's Car Museum

From the June 2 grand opening to the Kirkland Concours d'Elegance and the Drive Down Hunger initiative during the holidays, 2012 was a successful first year for ACM....for a number of reasons.

"In just the last six months, we opened our doors to the public, welcomed our 150,000 visitors, debuted a motorcycle festival, established long-term partnerships with businesses and charities, and even gave parents a shriek-free zone while their kids were at the Justin Bieber concert next door," said David Madeira, ACM president and CEO. "It was a fun, exciting time for America's Car Museum, and even better things are down the road." read more.

$1.5 Million Worth of Auto Donations Roll into ACM

The custom-made Ferrambo is part 1960 Rambler and part Ferrari and was donated to ACM by Mike Warn of Pacific Northwest-based Warn Industries.

What do you give a car museum that seemingly has everything? How about two super rare cars you won't find anywhere else? That's exactly what happened as ACM announced it received two new donations to its collection of more than 300 cars trucks and motorcycles -- a 1964 Buick Wildcat prototype and the Riddler Award-winning hot rod Ferrambo read more.

ACM at NW Family Expo

Visit ACM's NW Family Expo booth at the Tacoma Dome March 16. This family-friendly event will include exhibitors from health & wellness, fitness, green living, insurance/financial, crafts, banks, theme parks, local entertainment venues and more. The event supports families, community, learning and fun. All ticket proceeds benefit Multicare Marybridge Children's Hospital. read more
