

'The Drive Home II: The Heritage Run' Participants to Fuel up at RPM Foundation's 'Sunrise at the Speedway' Cars and Coffee Event on Jan. 3

What: LeMay – America's Car Museum (ACM) is launching "The Drive Home II: The Heritage Run" to celebrate America's automotive heritage across six states in the Northeastern U.S. by embarking on a 12-day, 2,150-mile winter journey to the North American International Auto Show (NAIAS) in Detroit, and holding auto-themed get-togethers in many cities along the way.

The group will be making a pit stop on January 3 to join local auto buffs and classic car fans at RPM Foundation's "Sunrise at the Speedway" for a healthy dose of caffeine and gasoline on their trek to the Motor City. Visitors will be able to tour the Museum located at one of the nation's most famous motor speedways.

When: Tuesday, January 3, 2017
8 a.m. to 10 a.m. EST

Where: Indianapolis Motor Speedway Museum
4790 W. 16th Street
Indianapolis, IN 46224

Why: ACM will be touring in three of its stunning vintage cars across multiple states – in a battle against the elements – to raise awareness of our nation's motoring legacy by spotlighting automotive relics throughout the country and at NAIAS in Detroit.

Visuals: Three striking red vintage vehicles from the ACM collection: a '57 Chevy Nomad, '61 Chrysler 300G and a '66 Ford Mustang, plus a 1917 Crane Simplex Model 5 owned by J.D. Rockefeller.
